Things in Philadelphia.

Correspondence of The Tribune.

PHILADELPHIA, Friday, May 30.

A man named Henry Cruiser fell dead yesterday, near Fourth and Cherry st.

A new Odd Fellow Hall is to be dedicated at Downtowning, Chester Co., to-morrow, with appropriate ceremonies. A number of the members of the Order from this way will participate in them.

Many corn cases are unprecedentedly numerous in the city. During the past two weeks, applications have been made at the hospital for the admission of more patients suffering from this dreadful interperitoneal scourge, than could be received into that institution.

They were transported on the Reading Railroad during the past two evenings yesterday, 30,351 tons of coal, and were shipped by the Schuykill Canal, during the same period of time, 19,245 tons.

The air feels quite chilly to-day, after yesterday's rain. It is characteristic of our climate, however. To-day we can only exist under the cooling influence of fans and ice cream; to-morrow an overcoat is not at all uncomfortable.

Beeswax is very limited to day. Cotten is held firmly, but the sales are on a very limited scale. Bark is steady at \$20 per barrel. A cargo of Allegany Bituminous Coal sold at 17 cents $\frac{1}{2}$ bushel. The Flour market is inactive. Some further sales of good bread flour have been made for export at \$24 23 $\frac{1}{2}$ bushel, the demand in Liverpool, &c., being within the range of \$24 35 bushels for common and extra brands, and fancy lots at higher rates.

Small sales of Rye Flour $3 50, and Corn Meal at $2 75 per barrel. There is but a small demand for flour, and no further purchases.

Saloons and Salts. Fairly prime white at \$2 60, and red at 26 cents $\frac{1}{2}$ bushel. Further sales of Rye at 70 cents. There is a moderate demand for Corn at 60 cents for Southern and Pennsylvania yellow, and 65 cents Pennsylvania Oats, in store, at \$1 45 bushel.

The demand for French Fortune, Maria Mitten, Robert Mitten, John Sagus, Maria and Edmund Sagurini, of London.

In porters' shop, Liverpool—Mr Wheeler and Son, Messrs. G. & J. Green, Mr. S. S. Masters, Mr. J. F. Clark, and Alfred Swales, Mr Wright and lady, Miss Wright, Wright, Mrs Mantin, Master Mantin, Wm Mantin.

In porters' shop, San Francisco—Eliza H. Halloway, Benj Allson.
